

Sarasota County Resilient SRQ

Community Development Block Grant-Disaster Recovery

Housing Recovery Program

Sarasota County has been awarded $201.5 million in funding from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Community Development Block Grant-Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) Program. Of this, $55 million is allocated to the Housing Recovery Program (HRP), which offers rehabilitation, reconstruction and reimbursement to eligible homeowners.

Homeowners Must:

1. Own the damaged home.

2. Have experienced damage to the home from Hurricane Ian.

3. Use the home as their primary residence.

4. Maintain a mortgage in good standing or be on a payment plan in good standing.

5. Have a household income at or below 80% of Sarasota County's area median income (AMI). See chart below.

Homeowners Can Apply for:

Rehabilitation: Up to $200,000

Reconstruction: Up to $310,000

Reimbursement: Up to $50,000*

Repairs must be completed prior to submission of full application.*

2025 Income Limits

Household Size	1	2	3	4	5	6
80% Area Median Income	$60,300	$68,900	$77,500	$86,100	$93,000	$99,900
120% Area Median Income	$90,480	$103,320	$116,280	$129,120	$139,560	$149,880

- Step 1: Submit the homeowner interest survey online at ResilientSRQ.net.
- Step 2: Conditionally eligible applicants will be invited to complete a full application.
- Step 3: Applicants will be assigned a case manager to assist with eligibility questions, finalize the application and complete required documents.
- Step 4: Award determination. If applicant is eligible:

A. For reimbursement requests for work completed from Hurricane Ian, funds will be distributed to the homeowner.

B. For rehabilitation or reconstruction requests, a Sarasota County contractor will be assigned to begin the process.

Applications will be accepted as long as funding remains available. Assistance with the survey and application can be arranged by calling 941-861-5309 or by emailing info@ResilientSRQ.net. Translation services are available as needed.
